Eastertide Observance 2019

Monday, April 29, 7:30 pm

Eurythmy Room, Washington Waldorf School, 4800 Sangamore Rd., Bethesda, MD 20816

At the Christmas Conference of 1923/24, Rudolf Steiner laid the foundation stone for a new mystery center in the hearts of the individual members, in the form of the Foundation Stone Meditation with its three exercises — practice spirit-recalling; practice spirit-meditating; and practice spirit-envisioning — and its culminating fourth panel.

Continuing this year's focus on the Foundation Stone Meditation as a centerpiece for our festival observances, we are again offering the opportunity to work artistically with speech artist Debbie Spitulnik. The Eastertide Observance will be devoted to the second panel. Here is the link to the translation we will be using.

~ Please arrive on time for this artistic offering. We plan to begin promptly. ~

~ Light refreshments will be served. ~

If possible, please let us know you are coming: nfoster14thst@gmail.com.

Debra Spitulnik was a class teacher at WWS for twenty-one years and received her Goetheanum diploma as a speech artist from Performinternational in 2016. She now combines these two loves, bringing creative speech to the children and faculty of WWS; her unique perspective from her years as a class teacher enlivens plays, poetry, and story in grades 1-12. Debbie is also an adjunct instructor teaching speech, drama, storytelling, and curriculum to graduate students at Antioch University New England and the Center for Anthroposophy.
