The Elves and the Shoemaker –
A Fairy Tale Contemplation and Conversation for Adults

Friday, January 5 – 7:30-9:00 pm

At Acorn Hill, 9504 Brunett Avenue, Silver Spring

“There was once a shoemaker who, through no fault of his own, had become so poor . . .” Please join us for a puppetry presentation of this beloved fairy tale, followed by a conversation about the wisdom and healing power of fairy tales, and the deeper meanings behind the imagery of giving and receiving, a theme we can contemplate as we near the end of the Holy Nights.

The evening, framed by lyre music, will close with a second presentation of the story. Light refreshments will be served.
