

The Foundation Stone Meditation and the First Goetheanum

A talk by Rüdiger Janisch

7:30 pm on December 8, 2018
Washington Waldorf School
4800 Sangamore Rd, Bethesda, MD 20816

The Greater Washington Branch of the Anthroposophical Society warmly invites you to join us for a talk by Rüdiger Janisch, followed by a conversation and light refreshments. The topic of the talk will be The Foundation Stone Meditation and the First Goetheanum. It will thus tie in with this year's motif communicated by the Goetheanum Leadership as well as the Festival Group's theme for this year's Branch Festivals.

About the speaker: Rüdiger has lived in Camphill Communities in Germany and the USA since 1976. He has been working in curative education for over 40 years and teaching in professional training programs in Germany and the US for more than 35 years. A long-time student of anthroposophy, he now serves on the Collegium of the School for Spiritual Science in North America. He has taught many different aspects of anthroposophy and curative education. His current activity is focused on the development of artistic and experiential approaches to the anthroposophic study of the human being.
