T.H. Meyer will speak on The Sign of Five - November 10th and 11th at 7:30 pm:

The Raphael and Greater Washington DC Branches of the Anthroposophical Society are co-sponsoring two related lectures by T.H. Meyer that will be based on the themes he covered in his book The Sign of Five. The lectures are planned for November 10th and 11th at the Washington Waldorf School at 4800 Sangamore Rd, Bethesda, MD. The lectures are scheduled for 7:30 pm on both evenings. There will be a suggested (but not required!) donation of $20 to attend one lecture and $30 to attend both.

On The Sign of Five, the subject of the lectures:

“The world seems to be standing within a demonic storm that threatens to overwhelm it,” states Thomas Meyer at the outset of his call for wide-ranging, spiritual-scientific knowledge of the world. Appeals to traditional religious belief will no longer pacify this storm, nor is “goodwill” enough. “The Sign of Five” tackles the central task of our time—the struggle with evil—and presents the five most important spiritual events since the beginning of the Age of Michael:

- 1879: The rise of the Archangel Michael to the rank of Time Spirit (Archai);
- 1899: The end of Kali Yuga and the beginning of the Age of Light;
- 1933: The appearance of Christ in the Etheric;
- 1998: The assault of Sorath, “one of the greatest ahrimanic demons”;
- the pending incarnation of Ahriman.

Within the context of “the sign of five” we stand now at the fifth place—Ahriman’s pending incarnation.
