Washington Waldorf School Art Room
4800 Sangamore Rd., Bethesda, MD

Michael, Conqueror of the Dragon – David Newbatt

Please join us in an artistic experience to celebrate Michaelmas. Barb Bancroft, high school art teacher at the Washington Waldorf School, will guide us in work with charcoal on paper to create an experience of light and darkness. No experience is necessary. Throughout the year we will continue to work with Barb during our festival gatherings.

Light refreshments will be served. Please RSVP to Nancy Foster at nfoster14thst@gmail.com, since our space is limited.
