

Three Events of the Chesapeake BioDynamic Network (CBDN):

1. Biodynamic Agriculture Talk by Farmer Stewart Lundy of Accomac, Virginia Friday January 12, 7:30pm

The Chesapeake BioDynamic Network invites you to a presentation by Stewart Lundy biodynamic farmer of Accomac, VA Friday January 12 7:30pm-9:30pm at the Christian Community Garden Grounds located at 4221 Metzert Road in College Park, MD next to the University of Maryland.

Stewart Lundy will share with us his relation to biodynamics and his extensive research into biodynamic agriculture. He will also share about his farm Perennial Root and the future development of agriculture on the Delmarva Peninsula.

Stewart Lundy is a biodynamic farmer and gardener at Perennial Roots Farm on the eastern shore of Virginia. He has been growing for seven years. His focus is rotational grazing, soil tests, and biodynamics. He is the elected president of the Delmarva Farmers Union and now serves on the board of FHCASA. Perennial Roots is a participating mentor farm for FHCASA's Beginning Farmer Training Program, as well as a mentor farm for the Biodynamic Association. Stewart's main focus lately has been the intersection of biodynamics and Hebrew mysticism (Kabbalah) as well as adapting biodynamics to tropical and subtropical climates.

Donations for the talk are greatly appreciated as it helps support our biodynamic farmers who are making great sacrifice for the future of a healthier agriculture on which we all depend!

2. The CBDN will also be applying the biodynamic preparation 'Three Kings Prep' to the garden grounds at the Christian Community in College Park, MD Saturday January 6. Contact mjudge2000@gmail.com for further details if you would like to participate.

3. Introduction to Biodynamic Beekeeping:

A Workshop with Gunther Hauk of Spikenard Farm Honeybee Sanctuary
Friday & Saturday, January 19-20, 2018 Washington Waldorf School Library

Session I: Friday, January 19, 6:30-9 p.m.

Introduction by Gunther Hauk: the current state of the honeybee crisis and the role of the honeybee as a pollinator and beyond. Screening of Queen of the Sun: What Are the Bees Telling Us, a 2010 documentary about the honey bee crisis, featuring Gunther Hauk and WWS grandparent, Ron Breland. The film will be followed by a Q&A time with Gunther. A light supper will be available for purchase for $7 per person or $25 for family of 4 or more. Movie screening free.

Session II: Saturday, January 20, 9:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Gunther Hauk will lead us through the basic principles of Biodynamic beekeeping and gardening. We will examine the following questions: How do these principles, developed by Rudolf Steiner, differ from other more common sustainable approaches? How does knowing about the crisis change the way we think about the health and vitality of the honeybee? And, what can we do in our own homes, gardens and schools to support these life-giving methods?
